Energoprojekt/Energodata | .NET Technologies, SQL, Angular development

From September 2019 – Pending | Belgrade, Serbia

- The projects in which i'm currently involved include the latest .NET Core APIs, Angular frontend and SQL databases, which are being used for developing large scale complex post office and banking systems for different countries.

Projects:

PosteSrpske: Engaged in a team of developers working on creating application for the entire postal system of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which includes, among other things, window application(on which im currently working), security, working with transactions, deliveries, etc..

OCRisk: This software is used by various banks and it works in sync with Abbyy(optical character recognition software) to analyze documents and create proper output such as pdf, excel, etc.. based on user input. Currently updating software from older ASP.NET Web Forms to newer .NET Core API and Angular frontend.

Various intranet applications that help employees perform their daily tasks more easily.

- JavaScript
- Angular Framework
- Html, Css, Bootstrap

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS
